

About 360,000 Arkansans to Go to Polls Tuesday

By JOHN R. STARR

Associated Press Staff Writer
Principal interest will center on a precedent-breaking governor's race tomorrow when Arkansas Democrats nominate candidates in the party's first primary election. An estimated 360,000 of the state's 590,501 qualified voters are expected to cast ballots in the climax of the first campaign in Arkansas history in which a man has sought a fourth term as governor.

Also to be named are nominees for lieutenant governor, attorney general, land commissioner, two congressional seats and a host of lesser offices. Democratic nomination is tantamount to election in Arkansas.

Four candidates — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, H. E. Williams of Walnut Ridge, Joe C. Hardin of Grody and Hal Millsap Jr. of Silem Springs — oppose Gov. Orval E. Faubus' fourth term bid.

For the record, the Republican Party is having a primary, too, but the only GOP candidate is Henry Britt of Hot Springs who is unopposed for the nomination for governor.

The Democratic governor's race has been one of the most warmly contested in recent years. Faubus opponents mounted attacks against him from the day the ticket closed in April — and in the case of Bennett even before.

But there have been vigorous campaigns down the line. Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon, bidding for an eighth two-year term, is faced by Leroy Hickman, a Little Rock insurance man; Frank Holt, Pulaski County prosecutor, and Amis Guthridge, a segregationist leader, have fought vigorously for the attorney general's job left vacant by Bennett; Paul Hanshaw of Jonesboro has run hard against Land Commissioner Sam Jones for a third term.

Rep. Dale Alford and State Sen. Robert Hays Williams of Russellville battled to the wire in the Fifth District Congressional race. Rep. Jim Trimble of Berryville was opposed by Donald Poe of

SENTIMENT SWINGING TOWARD LODGE — Mounting world tension is swinging sentiment toward U. S. Ambassador to the U. N. Henry Cabot Lodge as a running mate of Richard M. ## GOPs Approve Moderate Civil Rights Plank

By JACK BELL and WILLIAM T. PEACOCK

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago (AP) — A roaring all-night fight over the party stand on civil rights tossed a shower of fireworks into the opening today of the Republican convention. It had once looked like a placid gathering for nomination of Richard M. Nixon for president.

As the party faithful trooped into this big hall, close by the stockyards, it was hard to spot any of the 103 members of the platform-writing committee. Many of them had scrapped all day in a battle that saw moderate tones down, at least slightly, the liberal GOP glow emanating from the weekend Nixon-Roosevelt pronouncement of views.

The exact wordings of the civil rights plank that came out of this battle was kept secret for the moment. But the word to newsmen was that it contained a mixture of moderate and liberal proposals. Both sides talked of a possible floor battle Wednesday when the committee's work will be submitted to the convention.

Nixon told an airport news conference in the capital that "I certainly will" support a floor fight for a strong civil rights plank if necessary.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York also was prepared to battle on the convention floor for his ideas.

Today's forenoon convention session was strictly a routine affair, devoted to welcoming addresses and preliminary organization.

Yet it was an occasion also for getting off some initial shots at the common enemy — the Democrats.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, national chairman, hoisted at the premises he said had been made to everybody in the Democratic platform. To carry them up, he declared, would add 15 to 20 billion dollars a year to government costs.

Morton said the Republicans would adopt "a realistic, honest platform that we can and will fill."

The Kentucky senator is one of those figuring high in speculation about a possible vice-presidential nominee. But the betting favorite for the No. 2 spot was, at the moment, Henry Cabot Lodge, ambassador to the United Nations. Nixon will choose the vice-presidential nominee, as is traditional. At his meeting with reporters in Washington, he declined to discuss his choice for the spot except to say it will be a man who shares his views and one who would be qualified for the presidency if it should be necessary.

23 Persons Meet Death by Violence

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Twenty-three persons died violently in Arkansas during the week ended at midnight yesterday. Traffic accidents claimed 11 lives and two more persons died in car-train mishaps.

Accidental electrocutions, fires and drowning claimed two lives each. One person each died as a result of a tractor accident, was stung, a beating and an accidental shooting.

Two Hope men—James Autrey Gaynes, 54, and Almon B. Brown, 52—were killed yesterday when the pickup truck in which they were riding overturned near Hope. Police said it was struck by a car driven by Wayne S. Boyette, 38, of Washington, Ark., who was not hurt. Guy Gaynes, 52, and D. L. Dillard, 45, both of Hope, were injured. The two Gaynes were brothers.

E. L. Reedy, 53, of Pine Bluff, was killed Friday when his car collided with one driven by William Wise Jr., 43, of Memphis, on Highway 79 near Pine Bluff. George H. (Brigham) Young, 82, of Pine Bluff was burned fatally when the chair in which he was sitting caught fire, apparently from burning cigarette ashes, Saturday.

James A. Taylor Jr., 28, of Memphis, drowned yesterday in a boating accident near Amagon in Jackson County. His wife, in the boat with him when it overturned, escaped.

UN Speeds Troops Into the Congo

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The United Nations airlift of troops into the Congo speeded up today, and the total of forces deployed over the new African nation approached 7,500 men.

U.N. military officials were hopeful of having more than 10,000 multinational troops in the country by the end of the week.

With the port of Matadi again functioning, oil for Leopoldville and its big airport airbase was being pumped through a pipeline and also was arriving by tank cars over the repaired railway line.

Maj. Gen. Raymond A. Wheeler, retired U. S. Army engineer who directed the clearing of the Suez Canal in 1956, arrived to help with oil operations at Matadi and for a troubleshooting job on the land transportation system.

The U. N. also expected the early arrival of pilots from Sweden, Norway, Brazil, Argentina and Yugoslavia to fly a special U.N. aircraft fleet.

The U. S. Air Force handed over the fleet of planes, including helicopters and small aircraft, but refused to furnish air crews. The Soviet Union protested a U. S. Army transmission unit flown here last week to help in U. N. communications. American officials said they would return to Germany.

The U.N. mission announced it is pushing a crash program to meet the Congo's pressing medical and financial needs. Most of the remaining Belgian doctors in the country said they intend leaving, and World Health Organization officials were trying to get help locally and also to recruit staffs abroad.

Riots Reported in Another Area in Africa

BULAWAYO, Southern Rhodesia (AP) — African mobs rioting against white rule were reported smashing shops, beer halls and cars in the black townships of Bulawayo today. Shots were heard in one area.

A strike of the African labor force followed disorders involving several thousand Africans Sunday night, finally put down by police backed by white British troops.

Negro agitators moved into the white suburbs of this commercial and industrial center of 52,000 in an effort to induce African servants to quit their jobs. Many did. Some gasoline service stations usually operated by Negroes were staffed by white men today.

Troop reinforcements were ordered into Bulawayo and Southern Rhodesia's Premier Sir Edgar Whitehead came to town with a message of assurance for white residents. He said the reinforcements will enable more positive steps to be taken.

Southern Rhodesia forms part of the British-run Central African Federation, which lies between the chaotic Congo and the racially troubled Union of South Africa. Bulawayo is 250 miles southwest of Salisbury, the capital of both Southern Rhodesia and the Federation. Other members of the federation are Northern Rhodesia and Nyasaland.

Police required help from soldiers Sunday night.

The Africans gathered near the site where the National Democratic party had planned to hold a meeting. The meeting was banned by the civil commissioner of Bulawayo.

Tear gas scattered the crowd, but it formed again into smaller groups and continued to stone cars entering the African township area.

In London, an exiled leader of the National Democratic party, Joshua Nkomo, said the violence in the neighboring Congo "should be a warning to the British government — the same thing can happen in Southern Rhodesia."

Critical Time Now to County Cotton Fields

Cotton farmers in southwest Arkansas face the critical period in cotton insect control this coming week.

Peak emergence of first generation weevils has been reached, and second generation emergence is underway in the early planted cotton. High temperatures and high humidity could result in a large buildup of the boll weevil, Extension Entomologist Grover Powell, explains in his insect report for the week ending July 22.

There is still evidence of grub kill in the squares lying on the ground due to high temperatures, but if general rains occur, heavy boll weevil infestation can be expected.

There were 171 fields scouted last week. Boll weevils were found in 141 fields and bollworms in 105. There were no aphids or spider mites found in any of the fields scouted. The average number of punctured squares was 16 percent, down from the 25 percent last week. This has been an unusual year for Southwest Arkansas. At present there is little boll weevil activity because adults of the

U.S. Plane Forced Off Course and Shot Down, UN Is Told

2 Persons Are Killed in Wreck Early Sunday

Autrey Gaynes, 54, a resident of Emmet, and Almon Bernice Brown, 52, of Hope, were killed Sunday and two other men were injured when a car smashed into a pickup truck. Gaynes was driving.

The accident happened six miles west of Hope on U. S. Highway 67 shortly after midnight. The injured were Guy Gaynes, brother of the victim, and D. L. Dillard, both of Hope. They were brought to a hospital here and Gaynes later was transferred to a Texarkana hospital.

Dillard suffered a severe head injury and Gaynes had a badly smashed hip and possibly both legs broken.

Investigating Officers said the pickup veered out of control after being hit and ran into a ditch. Autrey Gaynes was killed instantly and Brown died later at a local hospital.

State Policemen Travis Ward and Dwight Pankey said the driver of the car was Wayne S. Boyette, 38, of Washington, who left the scene of the accident and was arrested at his home three hours later.

Police said Boyette, who suffered minor injuries, was booked and posted $1,100 bond on charges of involuntary manslaughter and driving while intoxicated.

Mr. Gaynes is survived by his wife, Arlene, four sisters, Mrs. J. A. Bartlett of Fordyce, Mrs. D. E. Chaput of Bismarck, Mrs. Hugh Bearden of Hope, Mrs. E. D. Gillespie of Camden; two brothers, Guy and Vernie Gaynes of Hope; and his mother, Mrs. J. A. Gaynes of Hope.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. Monday at Herndon-Cornelius Chapel by the Rev. W. C. Land. Burial by Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Service was in Snell Cemetery at Emmet.

Active pallbearers: Joe Holis, Ernest Davis, Ernest Coffee, Bill Wilson, W. M. Hargis and Hubert Shirley.

Lodge Offers Proof Russian Act Deliberate

By MILTON BESSER

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — "The United States, asserted today, has official proof that Soviet fighter planes deliberately maneuvered a U.S. RB-47 off its course and shot it down over international waters."

U.S. delegate Henry Cabot Lodge denounced the action as "a criminal and reckless act of piracy" which the Soviet Union tried to hide with "reckless talk."

But he did not seek council condemnation of the Soviet Union. "Instead he submitted a resolution calling on the council to either name an impartial fact-finding mission to investigate the incident, or submit the entire matter to the International Court of Justice."

In a highly dramatic speech he produced two maps to demonstrate his points.

Lodge said of the Soviet act of shooting down the plane July 1: "This astonishing and criminal act is established beyond doubt by the evidence of our scientific devices." He did not go into details and U.S. sources said the exact nature was withheld because it involved secret information of great interest to the Soviets.

He accused the Soviet Union of denying the RB-47 crewmen their rights under international law and denounced this as "flagrant disregard for the standards of international conduct."

As Lodge spoke, the chief Soviet delegate, Vasily V. Kuznetsov, sat attentively erect, alternately twiddling his thumbs and jolting down notes.

In the spectators' gallery the wives of the RB-47 crewmen, their expressions grim, watched intently as Lodge pointed with his finger to the maps upon which the plane's course was charted. There were two maps, one of Western Europe showing the plane's route from England toward the Barents Sea; the other a detail map of the Kola Peninsula area with a red arrow showing the position of the Soviet fighter plane which Lodge claimed maneuvered the American craft from its course.

He called the Soviet charges that the plane violated U.S.S.R. air space last July 1 a "complete fabrication" which must be dismissed as a poor attempt to cloak a wanton attack on a plane over international waters.

Lodge said he would introduce a resolution asking that the Council call for an impartial investigation of the entire incident, or a judgment on the case by the International Court of Justice.

"What actually happened was this: Before it (the plane) reached the point more than 50 miles north of Svalby Nos, at which it was scheduled to turn northeast, a Soviet fighter pressed in from the seaward side and tried to force the plane off its course and into Soviet territory," Lodge said.

"The Soviet fighter was successful in forcing our plane off its course and in delaying its planned turn to the northeast. It was not successful in forcing the plane into Soviet airspace. It caused our plane to make a detour. That detour is shown by the green line on the chart." The prescribed course is shown by the black line.

"This astonishing and criminal act is established beyond doubt by the evidence of our scientific devices, which followed the RB-47 through all the events I have described."

Somebody, Lodge said, lied about the incident.

"Only one conclusion can be

Castro Makes
Sugar Deal
With Russia

By HAROLD K. MILKS

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro has bound a third of the Cuban sugar crop—the cornerstone of the country's shabby economy—to the Communist bloc.

For the next five years Cuba has agreed to supply the Soviet Union and Red China 1 1/2 million tons of sugar annually out of a harvest this year is set at 5,700,000 tons. Shipments to other Communist countries will bring the total Cuban sugar going behind the Iron Curtain to nearly two million tons a year.

The Soviets also have bought the 700,000 tons of sugar President Eisenhower cut from Cuba's 1960 sales to the United States. The Castro deals with the Communists are largely on a barter basis pegged to world prices. The United States long has been Cuba's best customer at premium prices of 2 to 2 1/2 cents a pound above the world market price. The Soviet Union pays the world price and Red China presumably will do likewise.

Maj. Ernesto Guevara, the Red-leaning president of the Cuban National Bank, signed a five-year pact with a Peiping trade mission Saturday night to supply Red China a half million tons of sugar a year.

The terms were along the lines of the earlier agreement to send the Soviet Union a million tons a

Newcomer Is Keeping Yanks in the Running

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bill Gribb is a name not calculated to strike terror into the hearts of American League hitters. Yet this 25-year-old right-hander, recalled from the Richmond farm in early June, has saved the New York Yankees at a crucial stage.

The Yanks were moaning low Sunday after losing the first game of a doubleheader to Chicago 6-3. The White Sox came into town in second place and proceeded to win three straight from New York.

One more defeat and the proud Yanks would have been three games back.

Desperate for pitching after the failures of Bob Turley, Whitey Ford and Jim Coates, the Yankees called on Gribb. He came through with the first complete game of his brief major league career and his second victory over the White Sox 8-2. As a result, the White Sox lead was cut to one game. Gribb has a total of five victories over two seasons in the majors and three of them have been at the expense of Chicago.

Baltimore, snatched into third place, three games back, by edging Detroit 2-1 in 11 innings on Jackie Brandt's fourth hit of the day. Boston dropped Cleveland into fourth place by taking two from the Indians who spent most of the day jawing with the umpires. The scores were 10-6 and 7-6.

Washington came within one error of a major league record by making five errors in the seventh inning while losing the first game to Kansas City 6-3. The Senators snapped back 10-2 behind Camillo Pascual.

For the first time since May 30, Pittsburgh has been ousted from

National Loop Lead Belongs to Milwaukee

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

For the first time since May 30, the National League has a new leader. Pittsburgh, finally, has given way to the charge of the Milwaukee Braves who have been chewing chunks out of the Pirates lead in recent days.

Just before the All-Star break, the Pirates lead measured 5 1/2 games. The wise men along Broadway had tabbed the Braves as 1 to 4 favorites to win the pennant.

Milwaukee closed the gap Sunday by whipping Chicago twice 7-5 and 1-0 with a couple of familiar names. Warren Spahn and Bob Buhl. The Pirates, trailing 6-0, scored San Francisco with three runs in the ninth and had Manager Tom Sheehan digging deep into his bullpen for three pitchers before the Giants finally nailed down a 6-3 victory.

Los Angeles, blazing hot with 29 consecutive innings of shutout pitching—27 against the Phillies—blanked the Phils again 9-0. Stan Williams, the big man of the Dodger staff, hit a two-run homer during an eight-run spurt in the third inning and then managed to pitch a 10-hit shutout.

St. Louis came up with two in the ninth with the help of an error by Roy McMillan and a double by Bill White and nipped Cincinnati 6-3. The result left the Cards in fourth place but only one percentage point behind the third-place Dodgers. Each is four games behind the Braves.

In the American League, the

Hope Juniors Take District Playoff Here

Hope Junior League baseball team did it the hard way Saturday night, defeating Gordon for the district title and the right to enter the state competition August 2 at Walnut Ridge.

Gordon downed the locals 5-0 in the first contest but Hope came back in the second for a 6-3 victory and the district title.

The visitors were awarded the sportsmanship title for their play.

David Burke was the big gun for Hope, hurling on full game and going five innings in the second.

Honor Guest at Baseball Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A 22-year-old woman faced the stark from city jail to a hospital in a police squad car yesterday.

She gave birth to a six pound, 12 ounce boy seven minutes after entering University of Arkansas Medical Center. It was her third child.

The woman, her husband, and another woman had been arrested earlier in the day on charges of disturbing the peace.

She complained of labor pains.

Chicago White Sox maintained their one-game lead by splitting a doubleheader with New York. The White Sox won the first 6-3 and lost the second 8-2 before 60,002. Boston dumped Cleveland twice 10-7 and 7-6. Baltimore edged Detroit 2-1 in 11 innings.

After making five errors in the seventh inning while losing the first game to Kansas City 6-3, Washington slammed out 16 hits and won the second 10-2.

The Braves gave Spahn the support of a 12-hit attack including home runs by Johnny Logan and Joe Adcock as the veteran won his 11th. Buhl tied up with rookie Jim Brewer, up from Houston, in a real pitching duel until Mel Roach doubled with two-out in the ninth inning of the second game. It was Buhl's 10th victory.

The Giants were rolling with a 6-0 lead on homers by Willie Mays and Bob Schmidt when a blister developed on Billy O'Dell's pitching hand after he walked Dick Groat. Groat led off the ninth. Johnny Antonelli, the first relief man, was knocked out. Billy Loes, next in line, was thumbed out for arguing with the plate umpire. Mike McCormick finally got the side out.

In the big third inning, Los Angeles sent 11 men to the plate against John Buzhardt and Jim Owens and eight of them got hits. Norm Larker regained the league batting lead at .344 with two of the Dodgers' 15 hits.

Cincinnati appeared to have locked up the game with St. Louis when it scored two in the seventh for a 5-3 edge but Stan Musial's homer cut the edge to one run in the eighth and the Cards pulled it out with a rally against Jay Hook and Bill Henry in the ninth.

Dutra scowled. "Are those fat-sos mixed up in this green-goods racket?"
"No," Artemus said definitely. "Somebody's doing the muscle on them. They tried to hire my gun, and when I turned them down they jumped to the conclusion I belonged to the opposition."

Collegians, Spain Meet at Nashville

NASHVILLE, AP. (AP)—The Fort Smith Collegians and Spain's Baso of Little Rock will meet Saturday in the finals of the Arkansas National Baseball Congress tournament. The winner will enter a national tournament at Wichita, Kan. Garrett Williams, Arkansas football star, hit a grand slam home run in the 12th inning yesterday. May 20, 1960, marked the end to host Fort Smith to a 6-0 victory of the "Confederate" Government over Monette, Spain's base called in Arkansas.

Artemus satisfied his hunger. It was nearly 11 o'clock when Dutra's telephone buzzed. The lieutenant picked it up and listened. "Be right over," he said, and then to Artemus: "Wessler's got something," he said. "He put on his hat and went out. He was back in three quarters of an hour. 'Those $10 notes,' he told Artemus, 'were deposited by three different shops. One of them couldn't remember who spent the bill. Two believed it was a Mexican woman. In each instance she bought something that cost a dollar or so and took good money in change. Young Nol fat Good-looking couldn't put a name to her.'"
"I know a Good-looking Mexican woman. She's got a dead sweetheart who had a counterfeit note stuffed in his mouth," Sweet Lips Chavez said.

About a guy named Joe-

Joe Hardin is a man of sincerity and integrity. As a farmer and businessman he has a depth of experience from which to draw a program of genuine progress for all the state. As your next Governor, he will lead the state back to its honored position with sister states and develop the great potential that is Arkansas' destiny under honest, hard-working leadership.

Joe Hardin is no self-seeker. When elected he will initiate a constitutional amendment to limit the office of Governor to one four-year term—eliminating the opportunities for graft and entrenchment of political machines, such as the present one.

As a successful farmer, Joe Hardin will work to assist the small farmer and help develop local industries to process local agricultural products.

Through savings in administrative expense, Joe Hardin will increase payments to welfare recipients. He will do the job justly—NOT increase payments a pittance at campaign time ONLY!

Joe Hardin will give every available support to our public schools and increase teachers' salaries. All schools will stay open at all scheduled times.

Joe Hardin will help bring new industries to the state, not run them off.

Joe Hardin will remove political interference from our state colleges and other institutions.

Major League Stars By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Batting, Jackie Brandt, Orioles, his fourth hit of the game, an 11th inning single, gave Baltimore a 2-1 decision over Detroit.

Pitching, Bob Buhl, Braves, pitched Milwaukee into National League lead with four-hit 1-0 victory over Chicago in second game after Warren Spahn won the opener 7-5.

Although Williams, Bennett, Hardin and Millsap generally agreed that Faubus would lead the ticket in the first primary, they had little time for jockeying among themselves for the second spot. Each concentrated on lambasting Faubus from the start.

Bennett mainly hit the governor's segregation record. Hardin and Williams dwell heavily on the threat of dictatorship posed by a fourth term. Millsap began by presenting himself as a businessman candidate. Near the end he hit the segregation issue hardest.

All five candidates agreed Arkansas needs increased emphasis on industrialization, higher pay for teachers and an accelerated economy to halt population loss.

Faubus' opponents called for a stable political climate, something they said is impossible under Faubus' stewardship. Millsap promised to eliminate the state income tax and reduce auto license fees. Bennett said he would cut license fees.

All four said they would guarantee a politically free Highway Commission and Williams added that he would make the Wildlife Department out of politics. Williams also proposed to establish an Arkansas Farm Development Corporation and Bennett promised to sponsor a job security law for teachers.

The opponents were unanimous in calling for a constitutional amendment limiting the governor's term in office and in opposing proposed Amendment 52, the Faubus-sponsored school closing measure. Faubus took no stand on Amendment 52, which was the key proposal in his anti-integration program in the 1959 Legislature.

Hickman keyed his bid for the lieutenant governorship on the proposal that Gordon has no lifetime right to the job. There was little personal criticism in this race.

The attorney general's race, on the other hand, was run along personal lines, with Guthridge calling Holt "the darling of integrationists" and Holt asserting Guthridge could not handle the job if he got it.

Robert Hays Williams tried to make Democratic Party loyalty and Alford's attendance record the issue in the Fifth District congressional race. Alford ran on his own record and asserted the loyalty issue was moot because he is a loyal Democrat even if he did run against party nominee Brooks Hays in the 1958 general election.

Trimble, who is used to opposition in the Third District, ran a quiet race. He has scored easy victories in recent elections.

Waldron in the Third District. In addition, there were 12 contested races for state senator, six for prosecutor, three for chancery judgeships and for hundreds of state representative positions and county and township offices.

All five gubernatorial candidates have reserved television time for closing speeches tonight, but Faubus has said he will not use his unless a new issue develops.

If he appears, the governor will be seen from 9-9:30 p.m. Bennett starts the parade from 7:30-8:30. Joe O. Hardin from 8:30-9 and Hal Millsap Jr. will get the last shot at the voters from 10:23-10:30.

Bennett's speech will be on Cape. The attorney general closes his campaign with a rally in El Dorado, his home town, tonight.

Bennett engaged in the only formal campaign activity yesterday - an open house at his headquarters in Little Rock. Hardin, Williams and Millsap also were at their headquarters. Faubus headquarters was closed and the governor was not heard from.

Faubus made a formal campaign closing speech Saturday night at Jonesboro, holding to his tactics of reviewing his administration and attacking his opponents.

His four opponents continued to attack the administration generally and Faubus especially. There were no major new developments.

Each of the opponents predicted Faubus would be in a runoff but each felt he would be the man to oppose the governor in the second primary Aug. 9. Faubus' forces predicted the governor would poll 70 percent of an estimated vote turnout of 400,000. Other candidates set the estimated turnout near 360,000, the figure forecast by Secretary of State C. G. Hall.

Faubus has been involved in a runoff only once - when he came from nowhere to defeat Gov. Francis Cherry's bid for a second term. That time, however, Faubus was on the right side of Arkansas tradition, which holds that no incumbent can survive a runoff. Faubus won in the first primary in 1956 and again in 1958.

In southwest Arkansas, the first generation is usually the explosive one, but because of dry weather conditions and late planted cotton, the first generation did not cause the usual damage.

Third generation bollworm moths are emerging and eggs and larval counts have increased over last week. Aphids and spider mites were not a problem in the fields scouted. Plant bugs were present in a few of the fields scouted, but were not present in damaging numbers.

Dowell said farmers should remember that weevils in southwest Arkansas are resident in the chlorinated hydrocarbon insecticides and should continue to use calcium arsenate, the phosphates and Sevin.

shot down on land. This attempt failed, Lodge said.

Now we wonder why the Sotortions about this. Perhaps the Soviet air force was reluctant to admit to Chairman Khrushchev that the aircraft could not be shot down over Soviet air space—for the good reason that it was not there and therefore did not in-

Perhaps they did not tell him that they had to go 200 miles from Cape Svyatoy Nos to follow the RB47. Perhaps Chairman Khrushchev has been lied to. That is one possibility. There are others. We can all speculate.

The Soviet Union has charged that the RB47 was on a spy mis-was shot down.

By NORMAN WALKER

CHICAGO (AP)—The Republican Platform Committee after a sometimes bitter all-night session finally adopted today a civil rights plank containing a mixture of moderate and liberal proposals.
Whether it bypassed a convention floor fight remained a question.

Details of the plank were not announced. The Republican National Convention opening today will not receive it formally until Wednesday night, when the full platform comes up for action.

The composite was worked out at a closed-door session that ground on until 6:40 a.m. (CDT).
At one point the committee rejected 52-32 a motion that it adjourn for the night.

The politically touchy civil rights problem was tossed to the full committee after a drafting subcommittee voted 48-7 for a plank more moderate than that urged by New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and supported by Vice President Richard M.
Nixon.

Through the night the committee battled over a strong vs. a liberal plank, and backers of both sides threatened a floor fight if they lost.

It tabled the stronger plank but went on to accept some liberal sponsored amendments to the more moderate version. No details of either original proposal were made public.

provocative actions by the Air Force of the United States" as aggressive and insist that the U. S. government stop such activities.

The Soviet resolution refers by implication to the RB47 flight and to that of the American U2 spy plane that was shot down deep in Soviet territory. It has no chance of being adopted by the council.
Kuznetsov charged the RB47 was sent into Soviet air space to detect the Soviet Union's system of radar stations and "other military objectives." He said the two surviving crewmen had confessed they were on an intelligence mission.

Lodge in a brief initial reply said the plane was 50 miles off the Soviet coast when it was shot down and that it was never closer than 30 miles to that coast.

Lodge termed Kuznetsov's speech a "sinister fabrication" and a "revolting bit of hypocrisy."
He said the plane had been the victim of a "criminal and piratical action" by the Soviet Union.

said the final product, although based on the moderate proposals, included about half of the liberal-sponsored provisions.

Chairman Charles H. Percy said all votes were by voice, and he tally was taken.

Defeat of the liberals' offering followed claims by its supporters that many of their members had left the meeting while moderate forces remained in full strength.

Rockefeller himself had opposed either not only the civil rights plank chosen by the subcommis-tee but also the national defense pronouncement adopted by the full committee.

"I will fight right here in Chicago," he said, "to but across his views."

The platform group obviously charted a policy course that missed by a wide margin the terms set out in a compromise worked out late last week by Rockefeller and Nixon.

It appeared the platform group is largely rejecting the new look of liberalism that Rockefeller has hoped to fasten on the GOP. This was true even though many of Rockefeller's ideas have been embraced by Nixon, the party's chief presidential choice.

The completed GOP platform seemed destined to be far more moderate than the one adopted pledge of the Democrats.
